Lodge Notes and Fraternal Interests

Scopians at Wildwood Park Today—Goethe Lodge 10 Years Old—Royal Arcanum Offers Prizes—Spanish War Veterans Prosperous.

ORDER OF PROTECTION.

Lodges of the order in this jurisdiction will all have their faces turned towards Wildwood park, Bantelston, this afternoon, where the field day is to be held, and both Norwich and Thames lodges of this city are expected to send delegations. At its meeting Tuesday evening in Foresters hall this week, Thames lodge, No. 226, received an invitation from Beulah lodge of New London to join in a basket picnic in Richards grove on Wednesday, Sept. 1st. They expect a good sized delegation to attend.

SONS OF HERMANN.

In Germania hall Thursday evening, Germania lodge, No. 11, held its stated meeting, the principal business being the election of a financial secretary to fill a vacancy occurring. Charles Krebs was elected to the place. One application was received, indicating that the brothers are beginning to get to work after the usual summer slackness in fraternal society after the summer. Earlier in the season it was proposed to hold a picnic jointly with some other organization, but nothing has been arranged yet, and it seems probable that the matter may be allowed to drop as the picnic season is rapidly drawing to a close.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS.

A recent order from the national headquarters of the United Spanish War Veterans of Hartford announced that since May 10 applications for charters have been received and approved for camps in the following places: Waterville, Me.; Toledo, Ohio; Borough of Westchester, Pa.; Colorado Springs, Colo.; Bruce, Wis.; Vicksburg, Miss.; Jackson, Wis.; New York; Springfield, Ill.; Santa Barbara, Cal.; Syracuse, N. Y.; Port Mott, N. J. The order received the charter of a new camp in New York, No. 130, and one each in California, Alabama and Idaho. The order also tells of official visits made by the commander-in-chief, Charles W. Newton, as follows:

On July 22, the commander-in-chief visited the encampment of the department of Indiana at South Bend, Ind., and attended a banquet given in his honor on the evening of that day.

On July 23, he reached Elgin, Ill., and remained in attendance on the encampment of the department of Illinois held in that city until the afternoon of the 24th.

On the evening of the 23d he was present at a very large camp-fire, at which the speakers in the Governor Dipeen of Illinois, edn. Fred D. Grant and himself, and on the 24th, in company with the governor of Illinois, he reviewed a parade in which 1,000 Spanish War Veterans were escorted by 500 members of the Grand Army of the Republic and a battalion of the national guard of Illinois.

On July 26 he reached Indianapolis and was present at the exercises held in that city in connection with the dedication of the memorial to Past Commander-in-Chief Harold C. McGraw.

On July 27 he attended the encampment of the department of Ohio at Kenton, O., and in the afternoon of that day he reviewed a large parade of United Spanish War Veterans escorted by members of the Grand Army of the Republic and a battalion of the Ohio National guard.

On July 28 he attended a reception and luncheon at Cedar Point, O., given under the auspices of the comrades and auxiliaries of the Clara Clara Camp, No. 11, of Sandusky.

On July 29 he attended a reception and ball at Cleveland, O., given in his honor by the camps and auxiliaries of that city.

On August 2 and 3 he was present at the encampment of the department of New York at Oswego, N. Y., and attended a large banquet which was given on the evening of the 2d. On the afternoon of the 3d he reviewed a large parade of Spanish War Veterans, escorted by members of the Grand Army of the Republic, a battalion of United States Infantry, and a battalion of the National Guard of New York, together with a large number of civic organizations.

The term of office of Commander Newton is soon to expire and the order says: "From all of the visits which he has made, he has received the enthusiastic devotion of our officers and comrades, and the progress which is being made in carrying out the fundamental objects of the United Spanish War Veterans. The commander-in-chief hopes, and has been given every reason to believe, that his efforts have been of value to the organization, and the memory of the cordial welcome which has been extended to him, and the marked courtesies which he has received both officially and personally on all these occasions will always be treasured."

FORESTERS.

Court Sachem, No. 52, met in regular form Thursday evening in Foresters hall. Regular business was transacted and an invitation from Court Sprague of Baltic to attend a picnic on Sunday, Aug. 29th, at the Scotland station grove, was received and accepted. Court Sachem expects to send a good sized delegation.

LADIES' AUXILIARY, A. O. H.

The regular meeting of the Ladies' auxiliary, A. O. H., was held Monday evening in Hiernan hall with a good attendance. Besides the usual routine business, the final arrangements were completed for the whist at their next meeting. This social affair is expected to have a large attendance, as it is the first of the kind held in some time by the auxiliary, and the members are pushing the plans to make it a big success.

ROYAL ARCANUM.

The August issue of the Royal Arcanum Bulletin, the official paper of the order, makes announcement of a membership contest to be started Oct. 1st, 1909, and lasting till April 30, 1910, in which three grand awards will be made to three subordinate councils, under conditions of the contest, which will be respected for a full three years' scholarship, including books, etc., and a one year scholarship, including books, etc., in any one of the leading American universities.

There will be thirty other similar awards, all of the awards being scholarships in schools, colleges or universities. Details of the contest have been so arranged that the smaller councils will have a fair chance with the larger councils to win one or more of these awards.

Terms of the contest and full description of the awards will be furnished shortly to the secretary of each council, and additional copies of circulars covering the plan will be furnished him, which he may distribute among the members at regular meetings.

Announcement is also made in addition that two banners, suitably inscribed, and of a value of $20 each, will be awarded by the supreme council: "First—To the council making the largest net gain for the period covering from June 1, 1909, to and including March 31, 1910.

In the award of these prizes, the council at once. The Lee & Osmond Co.

If you are all run down by the kidney trouble, they will eliminate the impurities from the blood, depress the nerves and cause exhaustion, backache, rheumatism and urinary irregularities which sap the vitality. Do not delay. Take Foley's Kidney Remedy at once. The Lee & Osmond Co.

ODD FELLOWS.

Goethe lodge, Past Grand Frank M. Green, James Hart, J. J. Parsons, James Blair and Brother Horace Shute. An invitation was extended by both Unica and Shetucket lodges to have the Tattville brothers come down and view the work here, which is to begin actively in the Norwich lodges in September after the summer quiet.

The following programme of sports for the annual picnic at the Fairview home on Laboon road was prepared by the committee in charge: Ball game, tug of war, quoits, shoe race, potato race, 100 yard dash, spoon race for ladies, 150 yard foot race, sack race, three-legged race, fat men's race. Prizes are to be offered which are provided for by the sum of $2 appropriated therefore by each lodge in the jurisdiction.

AMERICAN MECHANICS.

There was a meeting of Mantonome council, No. 32, Friday evening, in Pythian hall, which was not in session long as there was nothing but routine business to transact, but the next meeting there is to be work in the second and third degrees upon two candidates, ensuring a meeting of the council in the near future. The members received from Organizer Tom Gilmore, who worked with this council last spring, that he is now in New York state and having great success in adding new members to the Mechanics.

TWELFTH REGIMENT.

REUNION AT SAVIN ROCK
George W. Rouse of This City Member of Organization and He Attended.

George W. Rouse left Friday morning for New Haven to attend the 44th reunion of the Twelfth regiment, Connecticut Volunteers, '61-'65, at the Sea View hotel, Savin Rock. The honorary members and guests present were Nathan Easterbrook, captain, Thirty-fourth New York Volunteers, New Haven; Lawrence O'Brien, captain, Ninth Connecticut Volunteers, New Haven; and Willis B. Isbell, Twenty-seventh Connecticut Volunteers, New Haven. The attendance was about 75, and included several ladies and friends accompanying the comrades.

The following officers were elected: President, Captain A. C. Hendricks; Vice-president, Henry Tuttle; secretary and treasurer, James E. Smith.

It was voted to hold the reunion at Savin Rock next year, the officers to fix the time of the meeting.

Assembly, which was sounded at 11 o'clock, was followed by the invocation of the Rev. Dr. J. H. B. Smith. The minutes were then read together with the report of Secretary and Treasurer James E. Smith.

Members from absent comrades were read, following which was the president's report upon the necrological register. The following telegram was forwarded to the newly elected commander-in-chief of the Grand Army, ex-Gov. Samuel R. Van Sant of Minnesota:

"Jack Mullen's Twelfth Connecticut regiment extends congratulations at reunion, Aug. 20th."

Jack Mullen was an enlisted man of Company B, promoted from private to corporal, sergeant, sergeant-major, second lieutenant and adjutant, thence to captain. While in the Twelfth he was adjutant general on the staff of Gov. San Sant.

The necrological register showed that in 1873 23 deaths were reported. Last year it was reduced to but seven, and this year eight have thus far been reported as follows: Adeline, wife of James Daley, private in Company A; John P. Woodward, private in Company C; Edwin H. Bush, private in Company E; Thomas E. Parnell, private in Company H; Asael Young, private in Company I; Sylvanus M. Woodward, corporal in Company K; Martin Singer, an unassigned recruit.

SURF BATHERS FIND CORPSE.
Believed to Be That of Member of Barge Crew.

Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 20.—Bathers at Margate City, near here, today found the body of an unknown man in the surf. It was that of a man about 25 years old and was partially dressed. He is believed to have been drowned from a vessel during the recent heavy northeast storm.

The only sea disaster known as the result of the storm is the breaking adrift of the barge Shawmont from the tug Valley Forge while on a voyage from Philadelphia to Portsmouth, N. H. The tug arrived at South town, R. I., yesterday, and reported losing the barge in a gale. The Shawmont carried a crew of five men.

Dorando Pietri Married.
Milan, Aug. 20.—Dorando Pietri, the well-known long distance runner, was married today to Teresa Dondi.

'Twas a Glorious Victory.
There's rejoicing in Fedora, Tenn. A man's life has been saved and now Dr. King's New Discovery is the talk of the town for curing C. V. Pepper of deadly lung hemorrhages. "I could not work nor get about," he writes, "and the doctors did me no good, but after using Dr. King's New Discovery three weeks I feel like a new man and can do good work again." For weak, sore or diseased lungs, coughs and colds, hemorrhages, hay fever, the grippe, asthma or any bronchial affection it stands unrivaled. Price 50c and $1.00 a bottle free. Sold and guaranteed by The Lee & Osmond Co.

ITINERARY OF THE TWENTY-SIXTH REGIMENT.

Taken from War Records at Washington—Those at Reunion.

The following itinerary of the Twenty-sixth Regiment was taken from war records in Washington by a comrade and sent to President Morse and was read by him. Sailed from Brooklyn, L. I., to Carrollton, La., Dec. 4, 1862, on the steamer Empire City.

Reported to T. W. Cahill, commanding the defense of New Orleans, Dec. 18. Duty in New Orleans from Dec. 18, 1862, until May 20, 1863. Moved to Baton Rouge, La., May 20-22. In support of Augur's division skirmishing near the Bayou Sauvage road May 24 and 25. In position on the left of the line near the schoolhouse May 25.

Siege of Port Hudson May 26 until July 8. General assault on Port Hudson, co-operating with Rear Admiral Farragut's fleet May 27. Formed in the third line at Slaughter's plantation and advance to Gibbons's house, encountering three high parallel fences. Crossed these under heavy fire of shell, grape and canister.

The casualties in the regiment were 107. Colonel Kinney was severely wounded in the charge and was succeeded in the command by Lieutenant Col. Selden.

Gen. Neal Dow was wounded and captured. Col. D. S. Cowles succeeded to the command of the brigade, was most of the regiment and died on the battlefield.

Col. T. S. Clarke took the command and held it until the capture of Port Hudson. Gen. W. T. Sherman was severely wounded. He was succeeded in command May 28 by Gen. T. S. Nickerson, who was relieved July 20 by Gen. William Dwight. Removed dead and wounded from the battlefield after noon of May 23, 1863.

Held the brigade picket line that night. Skirmished in front of the Devil's Elbow June 10-13. Second assault on Port Hudson June 14. Advanced in column of companies by New Mount Pleasant road to the Ravine rendered almost impassable by felled trees and dense growth of chapparal. Traversed it under a destructive artillery fire, establishing a line 500 yards from the enemy's parapet. In the trenches, others the heat was almost insupportable, until July 7. Surrender of Port Hudson July 8. Lost at Port Hudson 15 killed, 160 wounded and one missing, out of 235 officers and men engaged, or a little less than half the loss of the whole brigade. Duty at Port Hudson July 9-23. Returned to Connecticut by the way of the Mississippi river and railroads July 26-Aug. 7.
